LOCATION

Milan, the second largest city in Italy, is a true European metropolis that embodies the economic heartbeat of our country.

After being the "City of opportunities" from the second post war period, it is nowadays the capital of finance in Italy, as well as the realm of fashion and design made in Italy, a reference point for business class as well as for artists, photographers and designers.

With its imposing monuments, squares and churches, full of historic vestiges, Milan is a city worth exploring.

In the old city centre is set the renowned district of fashion, as famous as those in Paris and New York: Via Montenapoleone, Via della Spiga, Via Manzoni and Via Sant'Andrea are the undisputed symbol of Italian and international prêt-à-porter while jewelry boutiques and exclusive cafés complement the luxury allure of this district of the city.

Fashion, culture, history, art, Milan offers all of this and more, like having the opportunity to admire one of the most famous artworks in the world, the "Last Supper" by Leonardo Da Vinci, guarded inside the church of Santa Maria delle Grazie; or to attend a ballet in the famous and sumptuous Teatro alla Scala. Furthermore, Milan has luxury apartments, villas and buildings of great historical and architectural value which are ideal to meet the most demanding requirements.
