Lake Como

Historic luxury villa on the shores of Lake Como

DESCRIPTION

This magnificent luxury villa for sale is in Como, in a lovely panoramic position over the lake and its surrounding landscape.

This property was built in the early 1900s for an important German tycoon, who was in love with the city and its lake awe-inspiring atmosphere. Later on, German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer fell in love with it too and bought it as his summer home.

This period villa has a total surface area of 1,357 m2 plus 246 m2 of terraces and porticoes with columns, combining classical style with architectural elements of the 1900s. The main façade faces the surrounding mountains and a courtyard characterized by a fountain surrounded by an arcade.

The ground floor of this villa is home to a big dining room, four state rooms, a large kitchen and a bathroom. On the first floor you will find the sleeping area, which includes seven bedrooms with a magnificent view over a big park; four bathrooms and the terrace. On the second and last floor there are some lodgings for staff and a lovely small tower with its own terrace offering a unique view over the lake below.

This estate is surrounded by a luxuriant 25,700m2 park, where there are centuries-old trees and several species of flowers from all around the world. This property's outdoors are also home to a steam bath, a marble swimming pool, two glasshouses, and a big garage.

This exclusive property for sale also features a 215 m2 dock which can be reached from a private path.

Great privacy, luxury, and exclusivity are among the main features of this magnificent estate; here you will be able to live the magic of Como and its lake in a private and welcoming setting.
